

“ At the end, I was really sad. We took pictures and made a card. I still have them. ”

-- Former Power Lunch student

CORPORATE SPONSOR FAQs

How can corporations get involved?

Boston Partners in Education has a variety of ways in which you can become a partner. Whether it be a financial contribution to help support our math and literacy programs that impact the students of Boston, or a contribution of time and knowledge that influences these children during their formative learning years, we encourage you to learn more about Boston Partners in Education and the many ways you can make a difference in these students' futures.

Corporations usually participate in either our Big Cheese Reads program or our Power Lunch program.

To learn more about our Big Cheese Reads Initiative, please contact:

Karen L. Tefft, Director of Special Projects

617.451.6145

ktefft@bostonpartners.org

To learn more about our Power Lunch Program, please contact:

Todd Wackerman, Power Lunch Manager

617.451.6145

twackerman@bostonpartners.org

How can a corporation contribute financially?

There are several ways a corporation can contribute financially.

- Make a donation
- Sponsor our Big Cheese Reads Gala
- Donate a silent auction item for our Big Cheese Reads Gala
- Offer to match your employees contribution
- Support out Boston Marthon® Team!

For more information on how to give to Boston Partners in Education, please contact:

Judy Harrington

Development Director

617-451-6145

jharrington@bostonpartners.org

A is for Aspiration!

BOSTON PARTNERS
IN EDUCATION