

Young Boston Partners host fun networking events around the city that raise funds and awareness for Boston Partners in Education.

YOUNG BOSTON PARTNERS FAQs

How do I join?

Contact: Matt Cross
mcross@statetreet.com
or Maureen Brown
maureenbrown@kpmg.com

Is there a membership fee?

No, membership is free.

Is there an age limit?

Any young professional under the age of 40 is welcome.

Is there a cost to attend events?

Yes, there is a cost to attend events. All proceeds go to Boston Partners in Education.

How often do you meet?

We have four events per year. If you join the steering committee, meetings and conference calls happen before and after each event.

What is the steering committee?

The steering committee is a small group that helps plan and organize events.

How do I join the steering committee?

Contact: Orla O'Brien
Orla_Obrien@statestreet.com

Do I have to be a volunteer for Boston Partners?

No, but you certainly may.

Can I bring friends and colleagues to YBP events?

Absolutely, we encourage guests and hope you'll spread the word.

Is YBP on Facebook?

Yes, we have both a group page and a fan page. Search "Young Boston Partners" and they should both come up.

